S5 Saturday Oral Practice

To help students make the most of their time and equip them with essential skills to tackle the speaking paper in the HKDSE, the English Department is organizing Saturday oral practices. Tutors of the oral practice are our alumni who are currently studying at university and have performed satisfactorily in the public exam. They are trained by our English teachers and qualified to help improve students' speaking skills. Please note that students' performance is a part of the continuous assessments and all students MUST attend. Each practice costs $45 and the fee will be collected as a miscellaneous fee. Details of the practice are set forth as follows:
